

Kryso Resources plc

(“Kryso” or the “Company”)

Update as to Exclusivity Period

Further to the announcement of 22 June 2010, the Company confirms that the exclusivity period, set out in the exclusivity agreement made between Kryso and a major mainland Chinese mining company (“Potential Investor”) has been extended from 11.59pm on 25 June 2010 to 11.59pm on 28 June 2010.

During this time Kryso cannot carry on or solicit discussions with any other party in relation to any investment in the Company's shares or the disposal of any of the Company's assets.

There can be no guarantee that the Potential Investor will make any investment in the Company, and a further announcement will be made in due course.
